We've built a reputation as the undisputed leader in high performance hand protection with innovative design, high quality materials and unrivaled craftsmanship. Each glove is tried, tested, and proven to serve Military, MRO, and First Responders under stress in the field. Our mission is to look beyond conventional ideas and build the most advanced hand protection in the world.

EVERY ENVIRONMENT, EVERY MISSION, EVERY JOB.

COVERT

Covert black hand protection is designed for law enforcement and special forces operating in mountainous or urban environments. Covert black is not a natural occurring color in nature, but it is an effective color that the brain perceives to provide depth. Mechanix Wear's Covert black line of gloves provide depth as the eye interprets shadows and breaks up the user's outline in the field.

MULTICAM®

MultiCam® camouflage was developed to effectively disguise the wearer across varied environments, seasons, elevations, and light conditions. The pattern takes advantage of the human eye and how the brain perceives shape, volume and color. With only a small portion of the eyes responsible for perceiving color, the brain “fills-in” what the observer sees as part of the background.
